Retrospective

Twenty-Sixth Busiversary

Three producers and a videographer from the 2016-2017 season speak about why they made the shows they did, covering Video Bus episodes #101.11-105.4. VB #105.7&8 $11 ▶

Nuclear Issues

From Despair to Hope: Hiroshima/Nagasaki 2017

From the 1945 atomic bombs to the 2017 UN vote to ban nuclear weapons, speakers, artists and musicians looked at the progress made in Oregon and internationally. VB #105.4 $8

Order DVDs (or VHS tapes) for the same low suggested donation: $8 for 30 minute shows, $11 for one hour shows, $14 for longer shows. ▶—This symbol indicates a show with short turnaround time (1-2 weeks instead of 4-6 weeks).

FFVC offers streaming rights to its programs: $75 for individuals/non-profits or $125 for larger institutions. Once you obtain streaming rights, the show can be posted on line for all the world to see-- for free, on your own site or ours.

About Flying Focus

With yet another year of video, Flying Focus Video Collective has now been using video as a tool for social change, voicing the voiceless, for 27 years.

This catalog update contains shows produced between August and December, 2017 using both Flying Focus and Open Signal/Portland Community Media (OS/PCM) equipment. Views expressed on the shows do not necessarily reflect those of OS/PCM, Flying Focus, nor any group or individual which appears on the program. Full episodes and selected clips can be seen on our website and on YouTube. We now have over 39,000 cumulative views for 47 clips and 46 full length programs, including 18 of our “Busiversaries.”

This is the fifth and final catalog insert for inclusion in our 2015-2018 catalog. The catalog is at <http://www.flyingfocus.org>. Insert this page behind the front cover to create a complete copy, or send us $3.00 and we will mail one to you.

Order DVDs (or VHS Tapes) for the same suggested donation: $8 for 30 minute shows, $11 for one hour shows, $14 for longer shows.

Streaming rights for full-length shows are available for $75 for individuals/non-profits or $125 for larger institutions.
