Please let me know once you all ready to have your first executive committee meeting. I can help secure a room and other logistical stuff.

Yes, let's discuss as an executive committee. For what it's worth, I did hear a complaint from the bureau personnel at our last case review that she and others are made uncomfortable by being filmed over their shoulders, and I'm sensitive to that concern. I can't say I'd like that either. If not the auditorium, I think it's a good objective to find a space that makes all parties comfortable and facilitates our mission.

Is there a reason why it is less convenient for us to use the Auditorium, or why Mr. Handelman needs to film from behind the bureau reps? If not, I say we should try the Auditorium. All things being equal, it seems like there's a way to make everyone happy here. Mr. Handelman can get a better angle, and the meeting participants can all feel more secure.

Mr. Davis, the one who did the up close filming is not a frequent CRC attendance. Angelo's concern is more with Mr. Handelman filming behind the Police Bureau side.

It is totally up to you ladies, I will try my best to accommodate.

I am inclined to move to the auditorium in hopes that everyone can have their space. I found the up-close-and-personal filming last night to be inappropriate and distracting, and I think that setting our meeting in the auditorium might allow folks a good vantage point if they want to film the participants, without invading anyone's personal space.

Julie - let me know if you have objections. I'm not married to the idea but thought we might give it a shot.

Julie and Kristin,

Angelo told me that Kristin would like to hold CRC meeting in the Auditorium. Are you two ok with that? I think the setup in Room C is better for appeals and such, but it is up to the Chair and Vice Chair of the Committee to make the decision on this.

Thank you
